SUPPORT

Trinity's Counseling and Enrichment Committee is please to announce the partnership with two additional affiliate counselors who provide private counseling. If you need help paying for counseling with one of our affiliate counselors Trinity has a fund that provides assistance. For more information contact the counselor directly.

Elizabeth H. Earhart, M.A., CCC-SLP; M.S., LPC, NCC is a National Certified Counselor, a Licensed Professional Counselor, and a Licensed Speech-Language Pathologist. In her private practice located in Buckhead, she assists clients with a variety of issues, including grief and loss, life transitions, spirituality, and caregiver support. She offers a non-judgmental relationship of empathy, honesty, respect, and expertise in a space where individuals can explore their relationship with themselves and others. The hope is as one begins to develop a more secure and satisfying connection with oneself, a deeper bond with others becomes possible. She works from an existential perspective that emphasizes our need to find meaning in our lives, even during times of challenge and adversity. Contact Elizabeth at 404-631-7934. Christi Bartolomucci, Ph.D., LPC, is founder and clinical director of the group practice, Atlanta Innovative Counseling Center, LLC (AICC). AICC is a collaborative group of therapists who help children, adolescents, and adults utilize their personal strengths and wisdom to overcome emotional, spiritual, and behavioral challenges in order to live a fulfilling life.

Common struggles addressed include anxiety, depression, trauma, grief, OCD, parenting, marital concerns, divorce, life/career transitions, as well as personal growth and exploration. The AICC therapists are trained in a variety of therapeutic techniques and encourage healing through a warm, safe, and compassionate environment, along with some humor, to help clients heal and thrive. You can learn more about the practice and providers at www.atlantainnovativecounseling.com. Contact AICC at 770-293-1950.

We continue our affiliation with Morgan DiOrio, M.Ed., LPC. NCC as Counselor Affiliate for Children, Adolescents and Families. Morgan takes a developmental and person-centered approach working with teens and families, knowing that each individual and family brings their own beliefs, values, goals, and experiences to a counseling session. She uses a blend of solution-focused and cognitive-behavioral methodologies while collaborating with her clients to actualize their goals. Morgan views the therapeutic relationship as a catalyst for growth and personal development, believing that the counselor should act as a guide for clients, helping them to understand and evaluate choices that they have and empowering them to meet their own needs moving forward.
